CIVIL ACTION NO.

2024-1296-SEM

DEFENDANT(S)

Stefan Safko

Scott Harvey

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE

- 1) I am Anuj Gupta the plaintiff or person duly authorized to act for the plaintiff in this case.
- 2) The defendants, Stefan Safko, Scott Harvey are non-resident of the State of Delaware who, on information and belief, reside at:

Stefan Safko: 1030 Washington St, Unit 1, San Francisco, CA 94108

Scott Harvey: 1301 Portola Rd, Woodside, CA 94062
- 3) On 07/05/25 and 07/19/25 I mailed to defendant Safko by USPS a copy of the summons and complaint. I also included any additional materials originally filed with the Court. The form of mail service I used was CERTIFIED.

On 07/05/25 and 07/19/25 I mailed to defendant Harvey by USPS a copy of the summons and complaint. I also included any additional materials originally filed with the Court. The form of mail service I used was CERTIFIED.

- 4) On 07/20/2025 I received the return receipt from the Post Office and that receipt was returned marked NOT SERVED for Safko and was available for pickup, but was not picked up as of 07/28/2025.
- 5) On 07/21/2025 I received the return receipt from the Post Office for Harvey and that receipt was marked RECEIVED. I As referenced in Exhibit L.
- 6) On 07/28/2025 the process server Davion Stovall approached Stefan Safko in person and tried to serve Stefan Safko. Stefan Safko refused to take the paperwork, therefore avoiding service of the court documents in person. As referenced in Exhibit D. The process server Davion made one attempt before providing Proof of Non Service in Exhibit D. The evidence for his attempt is documented in Exhibit E, Exhibit F, Exhibit J, and Exhibit G.
- 7) On 07/30/2025 the process server Kristina Vardanyan approached and spoke to the neighbors in the building to ask if Stefan Safko lives in the building. She was initially given contradictory information about his unit. She made attempts at both doors Unit 1, Unit 5 as evidenced in Exhibit M. Finally on 08/02/2025, Kristina Vardanyan was able to have an in-person interaction with Stefan Safko and using the knowledge that he is property owner, and also the ultimate beneficiary owner of Sacardus Properties, LLC was able to get him to confirm his identity and effectuated service. The proof of service is in Exhibit N.

- 8) Despite multiple formal attempts to serve Stefan Safko, he repeatedly engaged in evasive behavior to avoid accepting court documents. On 07/05/2025 and again on 07/19/2025, certified mail containing the summons and complaint was sent to his known residence. The return receipt from USPS, received on 07/20/2025, showed that the mail was made available but deliberately not picked up as of 07/28/2025, indicating an intentional refusal to accept service by mail. On that same day, 07/28/2025, process server Davion Stovall personally approached Safko and offered the documents in hand, but Safko refused to accept them, thereby actively avoiding personal service. This refusal is detailed in the Proof of Non-Service and corroborated by supporting Exhibits D through G. Finally, on 07/30/2025, after speaking to residents of the building and verifying unit numbers amid contradictory information, process server Kristina Vardanyan was able to identify Safko as the owner of the property and the beneficial owner of Sacardus Properties, LLC. Only when confronted with public property records and direct identification by a neighbor did Safko concede to his identity and accept the documents. His conduct demonstrates a clear pattern of willful evasion and misrepresentation until confronted with irrefutable evidence. The evidence chain in Exhibit O shows the sequence of events.

6) Supporting documentation is attached as follows:
